

Nursery

In nursery we have been learning 'All About Me'. We read the story called 'Owl Babies' by Martin Waddell. We discussed how the owl babies must have felt when they were on their own on the branch. We also expressed our emotions and talked about our feelings!

We love to be physically active.... "Look What We Can Do!"

