In Nursery we have been learning about Alam Woodsey Thomas. She was an African American artist best known for her colourful art work.

In Black History Month Nursery is learning about Alam Woodsey Thomas. Alam Woodsey Thomas was an African American artist. She was the first African American woman to have a solo exhibition at New York's Whitney Museum of American Art, and she exhibited her paintings at the White House three times.

As part of Black History Month celebration, we looked at the work of Paul Williams. He was a black architect who learned to draw upside down. In nursery we tried to copy Paul William's design.

We made African necklaces from paper plates!
